

Abstract:

The thesis deals with the theme Permanent exhibition of the National Museum in Lobkowitz Palace. Specifically the second part of the historical exhibition, entitled Monuments of the National Past, which aimed to provide a comprehensive summary of the development of Czech state and its nation in the period from the arrival of the Slavs to 1848.