

English anotation:

Trinitary Theology of Eucharist in the Poem „For I know well the Spring“.

The first part of the thesis is devoted to the life of St. John from the Cross, especially to his experience of being jailed in Toledo where he composed the poem „For I know well the spring“. The literal, theological and mystical interpretation of the above mentioned poem forms the second part of the thesis. The mystical experience of the eucharist, as was lived out by St. John of the Cross and that is described in this poem, is interpreted through expressions of Church Fathers. The third part deal with connection points between mystics and poetry. The influence of other historical persons on the personality of St. John of the Cross and his way of thinking is discussed as well.
