

Abstract

The diploma thesis is devoted to the use of movement games for children on the I. and II. elementary school. The theoretical part defines the basic concepts such as: elementary school, movement game, teaching, physical education. The aim of this thesis is to find out how the movement games are popular with elementary school pupils and how they can use them in their extracurricular activities,

Keywords

Elementary school, movement game, teaching, physical education