

Abstract in English

In my diploma paper I am dealing with Protection of the Republic Act from 1923. When and also under what conditions this act was coming up . The next chapter is about the law as a whole and then in more details I analyse the most important enactments. After that follow analysis of updatings of this act and the next chapter is about the application of the code in the judicial practice. The second part of the thesis deals with the press legislation of the Czechoslovakian Republic and with fields of the press law. The last chapter finally analyzes press offenses contained in the Protection of the Republic Act.
