

The diploma work is directed towards making acquainted with Wallachian region - its history, position, division and locals. The aim of this work was describe the maintaining of the folk traditions, family and annual customs in the region in history and present too. The way for this work was study of regional historical literature and present life of Wallachian people.