

Abstract:

The aim of my bachelor thesis is to acquaint readers with General Data Protection Regulation, its impact on businesses, citizens themselves, and to point out frequent mistakes that arise in connection with non-compliance with applicable legal provisions. In the introduction, I will briefly present the previous laws and governmental provisions, which will be followed by an analysis of the GDPR regulation itself. In connection with this, I will also mention the electronic document and records management system and the data box information system (ISDS). Furthermore, I will describe address the differences across legal regulations of a national and international nature. I will also then describe the impact of all regulations on the operation of companies, their employees, and clients.
