

Abstract

This thesis is about 3 historical mining places in Bohemian massif in Czech Republic. In literature summary is every place introduced including geological history. In practical part of the thesis, there are 3 ideas for field trip, in each mining location there are shown basic information and main geological information with maps. Every field trip has its own worksheet with questions and tasks for students in age of 15-19 for improving their geological knowledge.

