

Abstract

Title: Suggestion for innovation of rhythmical movement games for students of elementary school

Objectives: Creating suggestion of innovation in accordance to General educational programme for elementary education.

Methods: The method of sampling, framework analysis and comparison was used for elaboration of bachelor thesis.

Results: The suggestion for innovation of rhythmical movement games for students of elementary school is created in the thesis. The games contain contemporary musical compositions, modified methodological method, content component and appropriate didactic style.

Keywords: rhythmical movement education, General educational programme, renovation, physical education, School educational programme