Course of defence: The Defense Committee Chair welcomed all participants and initiated the defense by verbal statements confirming (i) that a satisfactory number of DefenseCommittee Members were present, (ii) that the student fulfilled all the requirements as listed in the Study and Examination Code of Charles University including showing the appropriate documents.

The Defense Committee Chair introduced all committee members and asked doc. Havranek to summarize his opponent's report. Doc. Havranek summarized his opponent's report and then he had to left the defense due to time constraints (time conflict with teaching). The Defense Committee Chair then asked Laure de Batz to present her dissertation thesis. Laure de Batz shortly described the main topics, methodologies, and findings of the dissertation. Afterward, Laure de Batz focused on the fourth chapter called „Financial Crime and Punishment: A Meta-Analysis“ in more detail. After the presentation, the supervisor shortly described his report on the dissertation thesis of Laure de Batz and the cooperation with her. Next, the remaining present opponent shortly highlighted his comments to the dissertation and the report of prof. Karpoff was summarized by the Committee Chair. Laure de Batz briefly answered the opponents' comments. In the end, the Committee Chair opened discussion but nobody has raised any question. During the Defense Committee voting, Laure de Batz left the room and came back to hear the defense result.
