

This work is trying to resume principles and origins of European winter solstice celebrations. It is focused on today's Christmas traditions, their development and changes through the time, and their origins in the ancient Rome, tribes living on Czech territory (Celtic, Germanic and Slavonic), and Christian values and habits.