

Abstract

Title: Training and use of dogs for the customs.

Objectives: The objective of this Bachelor Thesis is creation of a summary of information concerning training methods and their use for Customs of the Czech Republic.

Methods: The developmet of this thesis was supported by study material search and its analysis. Furtermore, the methods of research, analysis and synthesis of the obtained documents were used.

Results: The result of this thesis is a document that offers a summarised information concerning service dog training for the purpose of use by the Customs of the Czech Republic and an overwiev of the most used breeds chosen for these purposes.

Keywords: cynology, integrated rescue system, Customs of the Czech Republic, dogs, dog training.