

Diploma work is intended on evaluation literary work of The Brothers Lionheart, looking for (and finding) ways that the work is possible to compile by methods of dramatic education and shift contents into experience of the pupil. It is the way how to take advantage of topics which are compiled in the work for form value orientation of pupils. Work contents analysis of literary work and analysis in term of dramatic education and description and reflexion of project that results of literature text. The diploma work contents also principle developmental psychology and psychology of children reader.