

The work describes the evaluation and self-evaluation of pupils at the primary schools. In the theoretical part there are mentioned facts which are connected to the evaluation and self-evaluation. The research part describes the action research realized with the pupils from the primary school in Prague. The target of this part was the realization of mechanisms and criteria of the evaluation and self-evaluation.