

Problems of education and possible socialization of individuals with mental disability to current legislation is analyzing in this desertation work. Basic ideas, characteristic of problems and development of care are mentioned in theoretical part. One of the chapters take historical moments of this problem. Practical part is made as case study, which follows partial family with handicapped child. Case study deal with involment of child to education and record his/her education to current day.

Key words: mental retardation, disabilities with more defect, education, socialization, consultancy, legislation