

ANNOTATION

Lucia Beňušková, BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS OF ECOLOGICAL SPIRITUALITY. Praha 2008, 63 s. - The thesis presents current problems of urgency to solve ecological situation. It is an attempt to indicate solution for ecological dimension of Christian life on the basis of biblical facts, particularly manuscripts depicting creation of life.

Existing panorama of ecological situation maps philosophical and theological basis of ecological movements, their global involvement and also reflects accordingly the critical views some ecological theorists and experts hold on biblical issues.

Based on the analysis of biblical texts relating to creation of life here is an elaborated effort for synthesis of theology of creation and essential answers to „Ecological Theology“.

Author's part has a character of an application: it features fundamental principles of ecological spirituality enriched with specific models of ecological Christendom.
