

Diploma thesis „From Migrants to Citizens: Analysis of Selected Citizenship Models“ provides an overview of different forms, principles and models of citizenship policies in today's world followed by three case studies of the selected national state citizenship models.