

The most important part of this work is to implement an information system so that it meets all the basic needs for the management of sports schools. The system shall contain the catalogues of students, lecturers, facilities, arranged courses and applications. Three groups of users: administrators, teachers and pupils have an access to the entire program. For this reason, the work is created as a web application. This text contains especially an user guide and a programmer documentation.