

The environment of fairground and parquet on the first grade of primary school:

Elaboration of both environments from mathematical and didactic point of view, preparation and realization of the experiment, their evidence and analysis, experience, possible applications.