

Mr. Frantisek Vesely was born on 18th of September 1863 in Jicin. He was the Jicin confectioner's first - born son and his mother origin was in the burgess family the Kraciks from Jicin. Frantisek's mother died in the year 1865. His father got married for the second time in same year. The father's confectionery did not prosper any more and that is why he left his second wife and their children and moved to Prague in 1873.

Frantisek's grandmother from his mother side, who had a small business in Jicin, started to look after the little boy. After finishing the basic school Frantisek Vesely started to attend the grammar school in Jicin. He finished this study by leaving examination in the year 1881. That time secondary school director was Mr. Frantisek Lepar and the boy made friends with his two sons Vladislav and Zdenek. Frantisek used to give extra lessons to a younger student from grammar school Englbert Erben and he engaged with his sister Milada.

In the meantime he works as well as clerk in the local law office, which influenced his future job selection. Frantisek's dreams included opening of his private law office and having family with his fiancée Milada Erbenova.

Having finished secondary school in the year 1881 he left to Prague, where he studied law. He has finished his studies by getting the title Doctor of Laws in the year 1887.

During his stay in Prague he kept in touch with his father and his family. From his father's second marriage were Josef, youthen and journalist, and Antonin, youthen and writer, involved in politics. Especially with the last mentioned half-brother Frantisek Vesely had very close friendship. In the year 1886 he makes a one year judiciary practice by the regional court in Jicin. In the years from 1887 till 1892 he passes legal practice and starts working as drawer in Lipnik above Becva, where he actively participated on the local public life. Since the 1890 he has worked in Tabor.
