

Main imposition submitted work was verify present piece of knowledge about choice micro - region and preferably is complete about new inquest. This imposition was without doubts executed. Main contribution those work rests in of several months' duration really intimate cross - country inquiry elect cadastral territory. Crucial was possibility investigation one's troop in terms of wider region and creation so relatively detailed picture primeval settlement given to cell regarding surrounding. This routing and processing results can be applicable on research by other, similar periods in this region.

All surveyed locations find in above sea level altitude above 400 metres.

To the late time was settlement in conditions similar this secreted, or regarded behind randomly. This work proved, that in one's only thing small cell, may be over most 10 different localities.