

Resume

Zuzana Ujhelyiová

Islam and the Christianity in regards to women's issues Comparative Study

Thesis

This study deals with Christianity and Islam in order to introduce this region, taking into account the position of women in the religious system.

In the introduction, work contemplates human direction to the transcendent in terms of topicality of Islam today. We view the phenomenon of Islam from a historical perspective, from the viewpoint of the Catholic Church, followed by a brief excursion into the history of Islam in the Czech Republic.

Subsequently, we compare the whole system of both religions. Description of the structures of faith reflecting the concept of God, the holy scriptures, the contents of faith and eschatological orientation. Furthermore, we present a comparison of ethics, community, elements of faith and celebration of holidays.

The chapter devoted to mysticism, after the overall comparison, discusses two Muslim mystics and further focuses on the spiritual plane of the two religious systems.

After the introduction of rituals associated with the life of a believer in the religion we attend to the position of woman and her role as mother and wife.

Key words: Christianity
 Islam
 Women
 Mysticism
 Religious practice

Number of characters: 284 682