Quintus Septimius Florens Tertullianus: An Exhortation to Chastity

The thesis addresses Tertullian's view regarding marriages, especially second marriages, i. e. marriages of widows and widowers. The thesis includes a brief overview of Tertullian's life and work, a short characteristic of the crucial parts of his theology and an analysis of his position on second marriage in Jewish tradition, Greek and Roman philosophy, the New Testament and in patristic literature. The development of Tertullian's view is illustrated by his own writings, the trilogy De Uxore, De Exhortatione Castitatis and De Monogamia, special focus being put on De Exhortatione Castitatis, an annotated translation of which is a part of the thesis.
