

Subject of the thesis „Factors influencing children activity in the Kindergarten" is evaluating five Kindergartens according to the following criteria: material equipment, teachers' attitude, parents' opinion on movement activities. The thesis is offering comparison of movement activities in daily routine in selected kindergartens and comes to think of how big is the influence of the mentioned factors on children movement activities.