

title

The possibility of using horses for people with disabilities.

aim of the study

Zoom and outline the possibilities of horses disabled.

method

For the creation of this thesis, we used the method of case studies. They were conducted in hipoterapeutickém center Valdek ops
We have put research 2 children, a boy and girl who have established diagnosis cerebral palsy. With the help of medical reports, interviews with stakeholders and their legal guardians, we have compiled a family and personal history. diagnosis established doctor degree of motor development, current health condition, then determines what your destination hippotherapy in individual cases will be put.

results

Based on the evaluation of the case study, it was found that the significance hipotherapy client with cerebral palsy can be great in many ways.

Keywords

Hippotherapy, paradressage, vaulting Brazil, parawestern, parachariots.