

This work investigates the possible merging of Czechoslovak Hussite Church and Evangelical Church of Czech Brethren. Author is supporting this thesis by comparison of the Czechoslovak Hussite Church and Evangelical Church of Czech Brethren by the view of theology, liturgy, and their organization scheme and also speculates demographic trends of both churches. To the script is attached a summary overview of Hussite and Evangelical congregations in the territory of Southern Bohemia with photographs of each one.