

The bachelor work provides an overview of the epidemiology, diagnosis and therapy of acetabulum fractures. The risks and complications associated with injury and treatment are described on the researches published at home and abroad. The work describes how short-and long-tenn hospital rehabilitation is planed.