

The objective of my diploma thesis is to analyse final team configurations of the world championships FISAF fitness step in 2002 and 2007. I would like to compare both world competitions with the focus on development of difficultness, variability and intensity of choreographies. In the same time I will confront technical progress and number of stepping action of the choreographies in mentioned championships.