

Thesis deals with the history and influence of exotic artifacts to the cultural sphere in the central European state- Czech Republic. Defines and classifies the categories of exotic art and describes their impact on our area of collecting, art and science. Particular attention is devoted to the Czech interest in the exotic art in the sphere of collectors and art.