

This Study brings a Look into Lives of male Adolescents placed into a Diagnostic Institute for Teen-agers for the Reason of Behavior Disorders. The Aim of this Study is a Catch of Respondents' inner World including the Interpretations of the Way which had led them to the Diagnostic Institute. The Study comes from a Narrative Psychology Viewpoint on the theoretical Level and refers to the Differences between the Placement Reasons given officially and the Respondents' Statements themselves. It is methodologically a narrative Analysis that includes the Data Research of five Respondents. The Respondents' Interpretations are viewed from three Perspectives: the first focuses °n the Interpretation of the Problém itself exclusively; the second offers a View of a wider Relationships Background which the Problém had been coming from; and finally the third Perspective analyses the Problém Position form the generál Life-stories of the Respondents.