

The final bachelor's writing examination paper concerns with the problems of the managing of the next teachers education in the Primary Art Schools in the Czech Republic. In the first part there is a short description of education as a life's work and the explanation of some concepts of the school management. The next part it works at the present condition of the next teachers education. It describes all legislative documents that work as the next teachers education and also the institutions that guarantee it. In the third part there is a summary research and evaluation of the present condition of the next teachers education in The Primary Art Schools.

This final report is based on the professional literature, the results of research and the own experience and information. The results can be applied on the work of the Primary Art Schools managers.