

This bachelor work presents the police working and focus on personality of policeman. I try to describe his four basic dimensions – psychology, social, biology and spiritual. Preliminary I devote to relationship between public and police of Czech. Than I devote to the Police training college of the Ministry of interior in Prague, where I have passed the police training. In a few chaps I have showed in results of my research among police officers a part of interviews with experts of police work too by witch I had met personally. ( for example Joža Spurný, Jaroslav Nečas, Daniel Herman etc.) In conclusion my diploma work I have focused on the Extension of help, which was constituted for not only police officers, but also for firemen and their family dependent. I hope that this diploma work will give the answer to the questions and enrich all readers as it has enriched me.
