

This thesis summarises the recent development in establishing the European Defence Equipment Market and generally in attempts of liberalisation and transparency in defence procurement in the European Union. In the second part, it deals with transformation of the Czech defence industry in last two decades. Main part of the thesis examines the relations between this branch of industry and its prosperity, the initiatives of the European Union and the Czech Republic.