

Anylysis of two primeral burial grounds of Old – Únětice culture and Young – Únětice culture in Prag region shows one part of the human history. This study is based on general knowledges about burial rituals of people of Únětice culture. In comparison with another burial grounds in Dolné Počernice and Polepy near Kolín it is confirmed specifity or uniformity of these burial rituals.