

Supervisor's Report on B.A. Thesis
DYLAN THOMAS AS A LOVE POET
by Eliška Mečířová

I consider this a well written, insightful thesis and recommend the grade of "excellent" (výborně). The student has set herself the task of analyzing the theme of love in an extremely demanding poet, and she executes this task with discrimination and intelligence. Through extended close readings of key poems, she illuminates the work of Dylan Thomas, and always remains alert to the ways in which other themes overlap with her own chosen theme.

It is my belief that supervisor's reports should not be long: any reservations or comments should have been made during the writing. Thus the brevity of this reflects only my satisfaction with her work.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Justin Quinn', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

doc. Justin Quinn Ph.D.
10 September 2009