

The bachelor work is composed of 2 main parts.

The first part deals with the history of village Nová Ves u Chrastavy. The settlement Nová Ves was probably founded in the 2nd half of the 15th century (1st written reference is from 1463). German colonists built in the valley of the Jerice river a typical long village. At the time 4 settlements occurred there: Nová Ves (Neundorf), Mlýnice (Mühlscheibe), Ružek (Hoheneck) and Nová Víska (Neudörfel). They were associated in 1850 in 1 village. The village was property of several noble houses – Biberštejn, Redern, Duke Albrecht of Wallenstein, Gallas and Clam-Gallas. Since 19th century many people were employed in the local textile factories. After 2nd World War the German inhabitants were expelled from the country, according to the Postupim Agreement. The Czechs came there and the National Committee was founded. Since 1980 Nová Ves was associated with neighbour town of Chrastava, but 12 years after the village got its self-government again.

The second part contains archival fund inventory list of written documentation of the National Committee of Nová Ves u Chrastavy, its evolution, analysis, archival characterization and registers.
