

This thesis deals with the media reflection of the totalitarian past in the Czech press, namely the reflection of the first phase of development of the communist regime in Czechoslovakia (1948-1953). As a model example used the controversy in the autumn of 2008 on Milan Kundera's denunciation. That unleashed Respekt, coming up with information that later gave a famous writer in the 1950 Western Courier of Czech origin.