

Bachelor thesis "Creation and brand building of the Partners in 2007-09" deals with building and communication of the brand Partners from its creation in July 2007 to the end of 2009. The Partners is the company engaged in financial consulting and despite a short presence in the market has built a strong position among its competitors. The purpose of this thesis is to describe a process of brand building of this company and the role of marketing communication in this process.