

ABSTRACT

Name: The feature of playing combinations of the national team of women played the World championship in 2010 in volleyball.

Subject: The feature of volleyball, the top volleyball, the feature of players and the feature of the whole World championship in 2010 in volleyball of women.

The goal of work: To describe a feature of playing combinations of the top women teams played in the World championship in 2010 in Japan. To value striking combinations out of the kinds of variations, how often the strike was applied, and Access of striking.

Results: After meeting the goals to analyse the most used Leeds of strikes combinations. To express the success of playing combinations of the top teams including the Czech team.

Key words: volleyball, the top volleyball, playing combinations, world championship