

Annotation

This thesis deals with children from orphanages.

The content of the theoretical part consists of the legislative framework of the issue, explaining basic concepts, description of historical development of institutional care and the scope of institutions of social and legal protection of children.

The main objective is to monitor the situation of children's home of clients in the institutional education. Approach the situation before the regulation of institutional care during their stay in institutional care, not only in the orphanage itself, but also diagnostic facilities, and also after leaving the facility and must be included in everyday life.

The practical part deals with how children stay in foster homes also affects their lives.

Key terms

Children's home, Institutional Education, alternative family care, socio-legal protection of children, family, Diagnostic Institute.