

Abstract:

The final work maps situation about multicultural education on the second level of primary school and engage in subjects, methods and means, which are used to reach the aim of multicultural education.

Following the results of questionnaire research, which were send to teachers propose an aplication to working activities expecially cooking in form of some multikultural lessons.