

The records to the real estate cadastre

- abstract in English

The topics of this master's degree thesis are records of the real rights into the real estate cadastre of the Czech republic. The thessis briefly describes the history of real estate cadastre in the Czech Republic. The main part of the thesis describes the current state of the real estate cadastre and the records of the real rights. The thesis explains what is subjet of records and which real rights are registered in the real estate cadastre. Attention is paid to other information recorded in the real estate cadastre. Next part of the thesis describes the procedure of the records into the real estate cadastre. In the end of the thesis is analysed the current state of the real estate cadastre. The proposals how to improve the real estate cadastre are provided too.