

Diploma thesis Jan Herben. Politician, journalist, writer (1857-1936) is a biography, prepared by literature, Herben's own work, and especially by unpublished archival material. It focuses particularly on the work of significant writer and journalist at the turn of the 19th and 20th century. One part of this work is to approach Jan Herben relation to his future wife Bronislava vista in this context, the prospect of a woman who becomes not only the wife to her husband, but also the working partner. This thesis also characterizes relationship of Jan Herben and Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk and vice versa.