

Summary

This master thesis is based on an interpretation of the essential ideas, through which Emil Durheim and Sigmund Freud theoretically elaborate questions of totemism, and on a comparison of these ideas. The major aim is to explain the general conception of religion of both authors and subsequent comparison.