

Annotation

Bachelor thesis The Problem of Incorporation of Carpathian Ruthenia into Czechoslovak Republic deals with political phenomenons that lead to the fact that the territory of former Austro-Hungarian Monarchy, inhabited by Carpatho-Rusyns, became after the First World War a part of the newly established Czechoslovak Republic. It analyzes and summarizes views and approaches of both Ruthenian and Czechoslovak representatives. There are also mentioned views of other stakeholders, especially the new Hungarian state.