

In General part of this work is described function of cruciate ligaments, mostly ACL. It also content causes of injury ACL, diagnostic methods and today's methods of treatment. The content of special part is detailed casuistry of patient, who has been rehabilitated after reconstructive surgery of ACL during internship in CLPA in Prague.