

The bachelor thesis deals with the problems of bullying at the second stage of primary schools. It deals with the theory of bullying; it gives a summary of the developmental stages of bullying and the way of recognizing and solving the problem. The thesis also provides the characteristics of the aggressor's and victim's personalities. It covers the topics of prevention of the bullying and the role of the coordinator of the educational-preventative programmes. The thesis also includes the results of questionnaire research related to the presence of bullying at the second stage of the chosen primary schools - in the country and in the town.