

Abstract:

The aim of this bachelor thesis is to suggest marketing strategy for social network AskYou. In its first part it concentrates on the theoretical aspects of marketing, which are then applied in the second, practical part. The thesis also includes survey, which concerns the awareness of the social network AskYou and its position on the current market. In the conclusion follows summary of positive and negative aspects of AskYou and recommendations for the future.