

ABSTRACT:

The final paper explores how qualified pedagogical employees are in basic schools established for teaching pupils with special educational needs and in ordinary basic schools where there is a special class for such pupils. Conclusion of the paper is based on research conducted in basic schools in the Pilsen Region. Research produced results to support existence of such schools and classes in the Pilsen Region.