

Abstrakt:

Objektive was to describe the history of the football club Kostelec nad Labem, now TJ Kostelec and the circumstances under which it originated. Its origins and sport efforts from the beginning to the present. I work, besides the introduction, divided into two thematic areas: theoretical and practical. The first five chapters focus the theory, the sixth is practical. In the first two chapters set the goals, objectives and hypotheses. The third deals with the characteristics of football. The fourth chapter is devoted to the development of football in the world and in Czech republic. The fifth chapter is the most comprehensive and discusses the origins and history of the football club in that city and its current for mand activities. The six-chapter interview with a football witness, who is also coach youth. This section is considered the most important questions are directed and used to verify or reject hypotheses. The work is a compilation character and could be beneficial both for people who deal with football, but also for those who would like to learn something about the formation of football clubs in this country and their beginning.
