

The aim of my bachelor's work is to characterize and to outline their times within non-musical activities at nursery institutions.

Besides, the work explores if the more frequent use of Orff's instruments may improve pupil's rapport towards the instruments.

All these activities are adapted for children of pre-school age.

The work also contains the appendix related to the use of worksheets or images.